

New Release

Rootstock  Publishing

“Few cult memoirs offer such depth of knowledge about coercive dynamics and the universal human experience of abuse of power. [Buglion's] good storytelling and nuanced writing guides the reader through the twists and turns of human vulnerability while also inspiring hope, determination and resilience.”

—Steven Hassan, PhD, author of Combating Cult Mind Control

An Everyday Cult

a memoir by Gerette Buglion

To schedule an event, contact the author at gerette@gerettebuglion.com

Order books through INGRAM

$16.95 Memoir | Psy
6 x 9 Trade Paperback
200 pages

Release Date: May 25, 2021

ISBN: 978-1-57869-055-8

LCCN: 2021902973

Orders: Ingram or
Rootstock Publishing

Author Bio:

Gerette Buglion's work in cult education and recovery helps others to navigate and avoid controlling power dynamics in destructive cultic groups. She is a founding collaborator for the #iGotOut movement which encourages all who have been impacted by mind control and cultic involvement to tell their stories. Learn more at gerettebuglion.com.

Rootstock Publishing grows its books in Montpelier, Vermont www.rootstockpublishing.com info@rootstockpublishing.com